

Hall Mills - 105.170 - Correspondence -
1927, 4, 4 - LL-FH

April 4 - 1927

Dear Madam.

I wish to thank you for your kind thoughts of me. A young lady from Charity Organization was here to see me and promise to help me out in some way, and as I have told her that I am not asking for no charity that my health was failing, all I was asking someone to trust me, rather to go in some business again, or place me in a position where I could make my living, and a new start I believe that Society owes me that much.

I was in business for my self before my wife have ruined, and than run away from me and was working for well know family's in N.Y. City, and it took me years of hard work, I was blackmailed, framed, distrusted by some because I was honest, distrusted by well know lawyer because I have refuse to brake the law and whe I have refuse to tell to one of the bankers wives wat I was doing in some apartment, who paid me all -- I was framed, and lost the work in both places later very same lady send for me and told me that I was too good to be true, that was when I was in the